

Meet Your Family Medicine Physician

Charles Ellington, MD

I chose to become a family physician because I enjoy providing medical care to families and taking care of all age groups from newborns to seniors.

Why I Chose Health Care

"I became a doctor because I want to help people. Growing up in a rural community where I saw many people unable to access healthcare, I wanted to change that. That is why I chose to be a doctor, a family physician, and practice in a rural community."

Fellowship

Department of Internal Medicine

In the Department of Family Medicine, Dr. Ellington provides comprehensive care for a wide range of acute and chronic care services to family members of all ages, from newborns to geriatric patients. Care is centered on family and our physicians work in partnership with you to maintain wellness through patient education, appropriate screenings and regular checkups

I love working out and lifting weights. I also enjoy outdoor activities with my family including hiking, camping, canoeing, and kayaking.
